

Sherri Call
Executive Vice President
Washington Trucking Association

Sheri Call, employed by the Washington Trucking Associations since 2001, currently serves as the organizations Executive Vice President; a position she has held since 2016. She has a dual role; both managing the Association and performing its lobby functions. Sheri is also a current Board Member of the Washington Highway Users Federation and NORPASS.

Before moving to Washington State in 1994, Sheri spent her career in freight related businesses from heavy duty truck part manufacturers to distributorships. Sheri previously served as a representative of the trucking industry on the Freight Mobility Strategic Investment Board (FMSIB) and Washington's Freight Advisory Committee. Sheri graduated from the University of Utah and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting.